Introduction:

REV Program Application

Any REV program course can be taken individually.
To earn a Certificate, you must complete all four courses in the curriculum.

Application Details:

To enroll in a REV course, you must complete a one-time application.
This will help us evaluate your readiness for our program content so that you can successfully achieve your objectives.

We are looking for participants who:
  • Show a commitment to innovation and a desire to bring an idea to fruition
  • Have general business acumen, with or without formal degrees
  • Can devote a minimum of three hours a week to REV course work

Your applications will be considered on a rolling basis and there is no deadline.
Please allow 10 business days for application review.

Business
Please answer the following questions
Are you interested in this program to help start your own business venture?
- No
- Yes

If you answered no, are you interested in this program to help start a new venture idea within your existing organization?
- No
- Yes

Please describe your new venture idea below:

Please note: This can be a rough, high-level overview of what your idea is. This program is meant to help you refine it, test assumptions or even prompt you to change it entirely. We are not checking for extensive detail. Examples are: “My idea is to have an autonomous robot that can be deployed on a lawn and mow and cut grass without being pushed/guided” or "Understanding news sources from the right and left is particularly important, I would like to create a website where news articles can be presented next to each other for a reader to read both side by side.”

Have you already started working on the idea or do you plan on using this course for your initial work on it?

What are the key challenges you face (or expect to face) in pursuing/creating/developing a new venture idea?

What do you hope to achieve through your participation in the REV program?

A minimum of 200 words are required.
